

Wetland Scavenger Hike

Wetlands are valuable habitats. They provide shelter for unique plants and animals, help store water, purify water and are wonderful places to explore. As you go on a nature hike, use these clues to find different features of this valuable habitat. Use the marker provided to cross off each object you find. When you are done exploring, please clean the Scavenger Hike sheet off with a dry cloth or tissue.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|--|
| Cattail Plant  | A Wading Bird  | A Water Strider  | Ripples in the water  |
| A Dragonfly  | A Snail  | A Frog  | Tracks in Mud  |
| A Mosquito  | A Muskrat Lodge  | Male Redwing Blackbird  | Female Redwing Blackbird  |
| A Goose or Duck  | Something Fuzzy  | Duckweed/ Floating Plant  | Turtles on a Log  |